Arts & Sciences Spring 2020 Instructor Report for SP2020.L32.Pol Sci.4625.01 - Topics in Politics: Political Data Science (Dominique Lockett)

Project Title: WashU Spring 2020 Course Evaluations

Courses Audience: 14
Responses Received: 6
Response Ratio: 42.86%

Report Comments

Welcome to your Instructor Report for WashU Course Evaluations. Below you will find response data from the specified course section. Responses to personalized questions appear at the bottom of the report.

The intention of this report is to provide feedback, and also to prompt improvement in areas that may be lacking. This report is accessible to appropriate department level and school level users, as determined by your school. We appreciate your dedication to our learning community at Washington University.

If you have questions about this report, please contact evals@wustl.edu

Creation Date: Thursday, May 21, 2020

Thinking about this course before spring break, describe at least one thing about this course that helped you learn.

Comments
Dom (the TA) was a great help. Her office hours were always informative.

Do you have any feedback for your AI?

Comments
Dom was extremely knowledgeable and very helpful. Her teaching session was well organized, easy to follow, and effective.
All the office hours were very helpful
Dom is helpful and responsive. She is kind and patient in answering questions.
Dominique Lockett was an awesome AI with her constant help and support via both email and slack communication. She had a great command of the material that helped me not only to improve my understanding of the subject but also to discuss over the material in the most constructive and helpful way. I am also so grateful for her care and concern for inclusive environment. Thank you!
n/a